

Positively-charged toner is attracted to the paper in a photocopier because the paper is given a charge inside the photocopier.