

When dealing with half-life data, it is essential to
..... the background radiation first.