

Mobile phone calls and TV signals using microwaves are transmitted to ..... so that the signals can be received in other parts of the world.